

My family opposes the weakening of this program. Unsolicited sales calls interrupt the routine of the household. We should have the right to control what happens inside our own homes. This program gives us such a choice.